Fallen Sovereigns—The Wrecks of Royalty

[From the Paris Siecle.]

At the moment when the Queen of Spain who might so easily have retained her throne, is compelled to seek an asylum abroad, it cannot be uninteresting to mention the names of the princes who, within the last half century, by circumstances foreseen or unforeseen by their own faults or in consequence of unwise resistance, by false calculations or enterprises which could not possibly succeed have fallen from power or lost a portion of their authority. The great conqueror of the century, he who transmuted the French republic into a sort of universal monarchy, Napoleon I., was thrown down definitely in 1815. His brothers the Kings Jerome and Joseph had already succumbed. Murat, King of Naples, disappeared soon after. Immediately upon being restored the Bourbon monarchy in Spain began to totter. It lost all its American colonies, which became republics, and Ferdinand VII was kept on the throne only by the French expedition in 1823. In the following year took place the fall of Iturbide Emperor of Mexico. The Sultan of Turkey was shortly afterward deprived of Greece, which was proclaimed an independent monarchy on the 3d of February, 1830. In the same year fell the Dey of Algiers, and also Charles X., led on by M. de Polignac and the ultra legitimist and clerical faction. The King of Holland lost Belgium, that is to say, one half of his States, on the 25th of August, and the deposition of the house of Orange Nassau was proclaimed at Brussels. The Duke Charles, of Brunswick, was, on the 7th of September, in the year 1830, driven from his dominions by an insurrection. The Czar at the same epoch, lost Poland for a time. In 1833, the too famous Don Miguel, king of Portugal was compelled to cede the crown to Donna Maria, daughter of Don Pedro, who still retains the sovereignty of Brazil. Louis Philippe was sacrificed to the faults and obstinacy of M. Guizot. On the 1st of December, 1848 the Emperor Ferdinand, of Austria, had to abdicate in order to avoid being expelled. At that epoch Pius IX. was brought back to, and has since been supported at, Rome, only by French arms. Austria, for a short time, lost possession of Hungary. The king of Prussia, Frederic William IV threatened all along from 1848, was forced, on the 6th of February, 1850, to take an oath to preserve the Prussian charter. In 1855, Nicholas I died of vexation and wounded self love, because he was stopped on the road to Constantinople. In 1859 the duke of Modena, the duchess of Parma, and the grand duke of Tuscany were struck out from the list of reigning princes. Soulouque, the emperor of Brazil, was hurled from his throne on the 15th of January, 1859. In the following year Francis II., king of Naples, saw Garibaldi enter his capital on the 7th of September, and again another deposition was announced. Otho, king of the Helenes, was driven from his throne by an insurrection in 1862. Three years later Prince Couza lost the quasi sovereignty of Roumania. In 1866 the emperor of Austria definitely gave up Venitia, the surrender of which may, perhaps, have saved his empire. In the same year Prussia overthrew the thrones of Hanover, Nassau, Brunswick and Electoral Hesse, and Maximilian fell in Mexico. During all this lapse of time no constitutional monarchy has been disturbed—no revolution has taken place in England or Sweden, where the young dynasty continues in Belgium the royal house has survived the storms of 1848, so in Portugal, in the United States no President has been overthrown, with the exception of the Confederate leader, Jefferson Davis, now engaged in commercial affairs. The military Presidents and Dictators in the South American States have been, on the other hand, sent adrift, each alternately by the others.

Such is the sketch of the downfall of monarchies within the last half century. Every reader will draw from it the conclusion which is most agreeable to his opinions, be they royalist or in favor of the popular cause. To reproach the latter, however, with so many vicissitudes, would be difficult.

Vesuvius.

Bierstadt's new picture, "Vesuvius," has been placed on exhibition in New York. The World's critic awards it a sort of half praise, and describes the painting as follows

"It is a midnight view of Vesuvius in eruption, taken near the Hermitage in last January, when the snow lay deep upon the surrounding country. The arrangement of the objects presented gives to the picture an unbalanced appearance at first sight, which is not lessened by the knowledge that the view is strictly drawn in accordance with nature. The volcano is shown to the left, in the distance, spouting fire and smoke. The clouds sweep away sluggishly over the blue night sky in murky billows, fire-lit, to the right of the picture, and from the base of the mountain extends to the limit of the foreground a desolate declivity of volcanic country, with chasms and hummocks snow whitened and fire tinted. The adjacent ridge of Somma, rising close to Vesuvius, stretches along in shadow towards the beholder, and very materially lessens the prominence of the volcano. The canvas, which we should judge is six feet by four, is fully two thirds given up to the foreground, which presents only three distinct objects of relief aside from the monotony of snow and scoriæ, and the few stunted shrubs that have shoved their stalks up into the poisonous air, and they are a broken and angular upheaval of rocks, the ruins of the Hermitage (consisting of three crumbling walls) and two leafless trees. Nothing else impedes the view, for the artist has wisely left the scene undisturbed by any human accessories. The volcano sends a red shaft of fire into the heavens, partly veiled in its own smoke, that fills up the distance, jets of fire leap up into the darkness all along the ridge that sweeps down to the plain, marking the course of the molten river and serene and glistening, spreads out the intervening space in the cold moonlight."

A FINE ROMANCE.—The Albany (Ind.) Commercial is responsible for the following estimable little romance

In 1845, John Elliott left his home and his wife, who had borne him eleven children, in Putnam county, Indiana, suddenly and in passion at some slight misunderstanding. He gave his family no intimation of his departure previous to leaving, and they never heard of him again until after the lapse of twenty six years. The wife believed her husband dead, and after two years' waiting she married a respectable citizen named Ballou, and has resided happily enough with him near Cloverdale, ever since. Last week a letter came to her through the hand of a person who was a stranger. This letter set forth that if she would visit a little town several miles distant from Cloverdale, she would meet an old and very dear friend. She concluded to visit the town named at the designated time, and did so. What was her surprise on entering the house where the meeting was appointed to meet her first husband. Twenty six years had passed and time had left its impress upon the man yet she recognized him at once, and threw herself into his arms, for notwithstanding she was now sixty eight years of age the sight of her first choice warmed the living pulse of her heart and broke open the fountain of her affections that had been so long sealed up. She threw her arms about his neck kissed his wrinkled cheek and wept, like a girl, the tears of joy. The husband's heart was also melted into tenderness, and he embraced his aged but long deserted wife with all the fervor of a young and ardent lover. The past was talked over, the sudden disappearance long absence and continued silence of the husband explained, and then and there it was agreed that they would spend the remnant of their lives together. Mr. Elliott accounts for his absence by a visit to California where he secured a fortune, thence came to Lincoln county in this State, and bought a fine farm upon which he has been residing since 1859. Mr. Ballou was very loth to give up his wife, but finally compromised. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott passed through the city yesterday, taking the Crab Orchard train for their home in Lincoln county."

Another Railroad Controversy

NEW YORK, Nov 17.—A new suit against the Directors of the Erie railroad was begun in the Supreme Court chambers before Judge Sutherland to day. The application of August Belmont the complainant, is founded on the affidavit of Frank Work and others substantially setting forth that the majority of the Erie Company has been used by Gould, Fisk & Lane, for the furtherance of stock speculations for their private interest. The affidavit further sets forth that recently, Lane was insolvent and that Fisk was an adventurer from New England. It also alleges in the affidavits that Pike's Opera House has been purchased in the sole name of Fisk with money of the Company to the amount of $185 000. Gould, Fisk & Lane, are further charged with having issued from twenty three to thirty millions of spurious shares, with the view of creating a "corner" in Wall streets. The affidavits further allege that the above named individuals denied other Directors access to the books, and, in fact, that they managed the affairs of the Company exclusively for their own interests, and in a reckless manner Judge Sutherland granted an injunction. It directs the officers and agents of the Company to refrain from increasing the capital stock of the Erie Company beyond the amount now outstanding in the hands of bona fide holders. It also orders the defendants to refrain from removing any books, papers or funds of the Company from the jurisdiction of the Court.

The letter concludes as follows: "Urge all officers of your county to put forth a united and determined effort for the enforcement of the law and to bringing criminals to punishment. You must make your authority respected or bring an open issue. If after making vigorous attempts you fail, then martial law will be extended to your county and upon the heads of the people thereof, the dreadful responsibility must rest. You are requested to perfect the organization of the militia in your command. If the loyal people do not volunteer in the State Guard, the reserved militia must be organized. When called upon, you must furnish your quota of militia to operate in other parts of the State. Urge upon your citizens not to act upon their own opinions against authority. He further proclaims that Theodore Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, is deprived by the Constitution under arrest, that he is disqualified from performing the duties of his office until acquitted by the Senate, and that his powers have devolved on him by the Constitution to put down the lawlessness and anarchy which will inevitably ensue, if a man, when impeached, however elevated his station, refuses submission to arrest imposed by the Constitution. The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING NOV 21 1868

Has a History

Not long ago we read in an editorial in an Oregon paper which is printed in the plate [illegible] writers a statement that the Democratic party is the only historical party in the country and must stand or fall by its record. What it cannot be admitted that this party is the only historical party of the country it will readily be conceded that it is a party which has a history. Nor can it be admitted that it is yet a question whether the party shall stand or fall by its record, for it is plain to every one that this question has been settled. The issue has been tried on the record of the party and by that record the party has fallen.

Yes this party is an historical party, that is to say it has a history. It is a part of its history that it encouraged the South to immediate secession, that it pronounced coercion unconstitutional, that it allowed the Union to be dissolved and declared that the Government had no remedy. It is a part of its history that it threw every possible obstacle in the way of the prosecution of the war to preserve the Union, that it pronounced the war a failure and urged that it should be abandoned. It is a part of its history that it opposed the measures adopted for filling up our armies, that it denounced and endeavored to stop the draft and incited riotous and bloody resistance to the laws. It is a part of its history that the rebels seceded on Democratic principles and that on these same principles they were continually defended by Northern Democrats. It is a part of its history that it has tried to place the country under control of the very men who fought to destroy it, that it has attempted to confer the highest honors upon the most guilty and brutal rebel Generals and promised to undo and overturn everything which has been accomplished by the tremendous sacrifices of the last eight years. These things are a part and but a small part of its history, but the enumeration is extensive enough to show why the party has "fallen by its record."

WHEAT CULTURE.—A recent report of the Agricultural Department of the United States says that the "progress of wheat culture westward is somewhat remarkable and its history is not altogether unlike that of cotton, in its occupancy of new lands and their desertion after a few years' use, not indeed, to grow up in sedge or forest, but to be laid down in grass, or employed in a more varied range of production. Not only does it go with population westward, but its movement is in an accelerating ratio, yielding results in bushels to each inhabitant surprising to Eastern farmers. Thus has the territory between the Mississippi river and the Pacific ocean which in 1859, yielded about 25,000,000 of bushels harvested about 65,000,000, while the country east of the Mississippi, with its accession of population and wide distribution of agricultural implements, has made no increase, as a whole, a few of the Western States barely making up the deficiency suffered in Virginia and Kentucky. It is a remarkable fact that a region which nine years ago produced only one-seventh of the wheat in the country now supplies nearly one-third of it. A similar progress in another decade will carry the centre of wheat production beyond the Mississippi, and were it possible for the Pacific coast again to quadruple its yield that distant wheatfield will give a larger product than the aggregate production of the United States in 1850." The Pacific coast cannot only quadruple its yield, but can make it ten fold greater than it has yet been.

ACCEPTING THE SITUATION.—The following is a recent dispatch from Charleston, S C to the New York Times:

After the announcement of the result of the Presidential election a number of prominent Democrats, including Hampton, called in a body on Governor Scott, and declared their determination to accept cheerfully and abide by the decision of the people, to stand by the State government in its acts and use all their influence in inducing the people throughout the State to do likewise. They expressed their conviction that the future prosperity of the State depended upon the unanimous, hearty support of the Government and reliance on the ballot-box alone in future as a remedy for the evils of unwise legislation. In reply the Governor expressed the great pleasure that their visit had given him, and his belief that this act on their part would do more to restore unanimity among the people and place the credit of the State where it deserves to be than any political expression could do. Governor Orr has accepted and qualified for a judgeship under the State Government to which he was recently elected by the Reconstruction Legislature. The Governor leaves for New York to day to endeavor to advance the financial interests of the State.

Very good sense in all this. It is gratifying to know that the South Carolinians have come to the conclusion that it is better "to accept cheerfully and abide by the decision of the people" in a Presidential election than to rebel and be whaled into accepting it. There will not be another revolt against a "decision of the people" for some time, it is safe to say that.

NEW DEFENSE.—Beriah says: "Insult to the aged is regarded in all civilized society as the lowest degree of ruffianism and that is a constant practice of the editor of the OREGONIAN." This is a characteristic complaint for the aged blackguard of the Herald to make, but he shall not hide his falsehoods or other villainies behind his advanced years. If he wants to plead the baby act in favor of old age successfully he must get out of public position. Then nobody will notice him. We never heard of any law, human or divine, which discriminates in favor of the aged sinner or grants him special indulgences.

"NEGRO SUPREMACY."—Senator Sumner in a recent speech says the inquietude on account of what is called negro supremacy is incredible. It is one of the curiosities of history. Occupied as I am at this moment I should be tempted to put aside all other things and journey to the Mississippi in order to look at a company of whites who will openly confess their fear of negro supremacy. I should like to see their pallid faces and hear the confession from their own trembling lips. Such a company of whites would be a sight to behold. Falstaff's sorry troop was nothing to them.

GENUINE REPENTANCE.—[illegible] reports in San Francisco the editors and proprietors of the Examiner of that city have been pretty nearly [illegible] out by betting on a Democratic majority in California. The Examiner in almost every issue is now expressing the hope that the Legislature will pass a stringent law to prevent betting on elections. This seems to be a case of genuine repentance.

BANNER DISTRICT.—The Second Congressional District of Illinois claims to be the banner District of the Union. It gives General Farnsworth 14,418 majority. Two years ago his majority was 12,839.

Grant's Majorities

The fact that in nearly all the States Grant's majorities are largely in excess of those given to Lincoln in 1864 is a result which should not be allowed to escape the notice of those Democrats who three months ago were so boastful and insolent in anticipation of victory. In a few States Grant's majority is a little below Lincoln's, but the general rule is the other way and the aggregate majority for Grant in the States which he carried in 1864 is very much larger than the aggregate majority for Lincoln that year. We give a few examples. In Illinois Grant has [illegible] against Lincoln's 30,736. In Minnesota Grant's majority is 15,040, Lincoln's was [illegible]. Michigan gives Grant nearly 31,000 majority, she gave Lincoln but 16,917. The last account from Pennsylvania gives Grant a majority of almost 30,000 which is [illegible] as large as that thrown for Lincoln. Vermont gives Grant a majority of 32,122, she gave Lincoln 29,098. There is a small [illegible] against the Republicans in New York as compared with 1864, a like change in Maryland and a reduction of the majority in Missouri, but these seem to be all the losses. The vote of the Southern States appears to be almost equally divided between the parties. Grant's majority throughout the Union on the popular vote will scarcely be less than 400,000 and may reach 500,000. It can no longer be said that the Republican party does not comprise a majority of the whole American people.

THE CAUSE.—The New York Tribune says the recent financial stringency was the result of a strong and thoroughly organized conspiracy on the eve of the Presidential election to create a great panic in the money, stocks and merchandise markets. The organization had two objects, political and financial, but was gotten up chiefly with reference to the former. It was thought that a panic from stringent money would work great damage to the Republican party, as the odium of this chaotic condition of the finances could be attributed to Republican management.

NEW ATLANTIC CABLE.—The new telegraph cable which is to be laid between the shores of France and the United States is being manufactured in England. In construction the new cable is almost identical with those now in operation. Recent soundings show that the bottom of the ocean between Brest and the shore of New York is nearly the same as the bed in which the existing cables are laid. The Great Eastern will be employed to lay the new cable, and will start on the expedition in June or July, 18[illegible].

GOOD IDEA.—In Ohio they cling to the old fashioned idea that laws are made to be enforced. Result—two Democratic Judges and one Democratic Congressman are under arrest and likely to go to the penitentiary for violating naturalization and election laws.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 20.—The newspaper suit of Derbec is still on trial. The testimony was mainly directed towards proving the value of French type and that after being pied it would cost more than the original value of the type to assort it.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

SALEM, Nov 20.—The following is the official vote of Union county: Seymour 559, Grant 300. Seymour's majority 259.

MODERN WOMEN AS SEEN AT SARATOGA.—I see few in this multitude of women who would not repel the insinuation of strong minded. I watched one person for weeks with anxious eye. Her lank flaxen hair and spectacles surmounting a pulpy, Spurgeon nose, seemed to denote the Freedman's missionary. Her Pre-Raphaelite shoes following the exact form of the foot, were evidently designed by some lover of nature and not a mere copyist of such ideal forms as square toes. Here thought I, is one who sets at defiance the tyranny of custom. Alas! no flirt of sixteen with a peroration to her dress two yards long was more weak or prejudiced than she. She had chanced to cross Mrs Stanton's orbit somewhere in space and admired her snowy locks—which, she added, were of course blanched by a mineral artificial process. For her part she had no patience with such women. They overstepped their sphere.

Every night some hotel furnishes forth a hop for the delectation of its inmates. Here under the gas we see women whirled in the maddening gallop, with a ring of spectators gathered around to see fair play. Now they skim around the periphery, now they dive into the vortex, until they look like a group of wild-eyed Bacchantes drunk with giddy motion. I might have gazed at [illegible] plantation break down with emotions less keenly poignant. Young Bob [illegible] informs us privately as he wipes the perspiration of the last [illegible] dance from his brow that he takes his partner aside and treats her [illegible] before venturing his reputation with her in the ring. [illegible] These are the pleasures which they will never surrender [illegible] the glorious privilege of being toasted as "Lovely Woman" at the fag end of the [illegible] just before Gavin M Murragh and [illegible] companions fall under the table.—Rev [illegible]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 19

Political

CHARLESTON, Nov 19.—The Mercury has been discontinued since Monday. Grant's official majority in South Carolina is 17,6[illegible].

TALLAHASSEE, Nov 19.—Owing to the absence of Chief Justice Randall the Supreme Court has not yet rendered an opinion upon the legality of the [illegible] Reed.

BALTIMORE, Nov 18.—[illegible] Seymour [illegible] The town of Brooklyn [illegible] Secretary of State [illegible] Grant's official majority will be 2,9[illegible]4.

Asylum Burned

[illegible] Nov [illegible].—A fire broke out at Central Lunatic Asylum at ten o'clock [illegible] eighty women [illegible] little property [illegible] were burned [illegible] removed to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

North Carolina

RALEIGH, Nov 18.—Governor Holden's message [illegible] the State. He congratulates the State upon the [illegible] suffrage for all and [illegible] Grant.

Diplomatic

WASHINGTON, Nov 19.—A special says that Secretary Seward pronounces as an utter fabrication the statement that the British Government agreed to withdraw her joint occupancy of the island of San Juan. The State Department has received no intelligence which would subject the conduct of Minister Washburne to censure. On the contrary the Standard, a leading English journal at Buenos Ayres, firmly defends his conduct as governed by the highest considerations of courage and harmony.

Vote of Illinois

CHICAGO, Nov 19.—Grant's official majority [illegible] 50,000.

The Railroad War

NEW YORK, Nov 19.—Specials say the Erie controversy is the general topic of conversation on Wall street to day. It is the general disposition to await further developments before operating to any extent. Counter suits have been commenced against Belmont, Drew and others charging them with a conspiracy to get control of the road. The war promises to be a very bitter one. There is some talk of carrying the case to the United States Courts on complaints of foreign stock holders.

The first billiard match between Rudolphe and Carme was played last night. The game was the French carom 500 points and was won by Rudolphe, the score standing Rudolphe 500, Carme [illegible]5. The second game is to be played to night. It is to be the American four ball carom (pushes barred), 1,000 points.

In the Erie difficulty it is shown that Carlos McIntosh filed a bill of complaint with Judge Barnard upon which the Judge appointed Jay Gould as Trustee of the company with power of Receiver. He also granted an order of injunction restricting all parties from prosecuting any new suit.

Joseph Fiske, Jr made a counter affidavit in which he declares that Daniel Dow informed him that he intended a suit on the part of Belmont and asked for a loan of $30,000 in consideration of its omission. This being refused, he stated he would injure Fiske's associates all he could.

Report from General Halleck.

WASHINGTON, Nov 17.—General Halleck in his report to the War Department recommends the establishment of military posts in the vicinity of the largest tribes of Indians in Alaska as a prevention of war and the keeping of a vessel of war in those waters. A Territorial government he regards as needless. He thinks the mineral wealth of Arizona greatly misrepresented and contends that its agricultural resources would yield far more than its mines. He recommends that the three southern counties of California be made a separate military district.

Miscellaneous

HAVANA, Nov 19.—Two persons, Mr Clark of San Francisco and Geo Johnson of Philadelphia lost their lives by the capsizing of a boat in landing from the steamer Star of the Union.

NEW YORK, Nov 19.—Western Union Telegraph stock 36½. The stock market has been excited and variable with Erie as the leading feature before the close of the day. For deliveries Erie stood at [illegible]@42 cash. Immediately thereafter the price declined to 42@43.

Early this forenoon the large brick building on Water street, Brooklyn, owned by the Carey estate and occupied by several parties for manufacturing purposes, was burned to the ground. One fireman was killed by the falling walls and another seriously injured. The loss is about $60,000. Eight fires occurred this afternoon between two and four o'clock, in the eastern portion of the city. Nearly all were in stables. Three boys were arrested on charge of being the incendiaries.

The Superintendent of Public Buildings is overhauling the condition of places of amusement in regard to facilities for egress in case of fire.

General Grant returned to Washington to day.

In the National Christian Convention to day resolutions offering congratulations to General Grant upon his election were referred to the Business Committee.

BOSTON, Nov 19.—There was a large attendance at the Woman's Rights Convention to day. Chas Barnard, Fred Douglass and others made addresses expressive of sympathy with the movement to establish suffrage for women. Resolutions were presented and laid over for discussion. The following embraces their general scope:

Resolved, That we invite the Republican party to drop the watchword of manhood suffrage and the Democratic party to abandon its motto of white man's government and unite on an amendment to the Constitution extending suffrage to all men and women as the inalienable birthright of every American citizen.

Rev B J Bowles of Springfield, Rev D A Wasson, Lucy Stone and husband and Dr Blackwell made addresses. Samuel L Sewell proposed a preamble to the resolutions as follows: Believing in the natural equality of the sexes, that women ought to enjoy the same legal rights and privileges as men, that so long as women are denied the elective franchise they suffer a great wrong, the undersigned agree to unite in an association to be called the New England Woman Suffrage Association. The object of the association is declared to be to procure the right of suffrage for women, to effect such changes in the laws as shall place woman on an equal footing with man. Adopted. A full set of officers was elected as follows: Mrs Julia Ward Howe President. Wm Lloyd Garrison, Louisa Olcott, Lydia Amerson and J G Whittier are among the list of Vice Presidents. Wm Lloyd Garrison and Senator Wilson spoke and were warmly applauded. Senator Wilson expressed himself in favor of negro suffrage, but did not want that or any other question put forward until the Southern question was fully settled. He had no doubt Congress would authorize the colored men to vote in every State [illegible] suffrage sure first before taking another step.

PARIS, Nov 18.—Letters from Madrid report that great agitation prevails throughout Spain.

The Cabinet has ordered the statue of Washington belonging to New Orleans and stored in the Patent Office since the beginning of the war, to be returned to New Orleans.

CHANCE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged, for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S

Native California Wine

BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and [illegible], defendant.

[illegible] Sainsevain, being duly sworn, says: That the article known as Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully, about the month of March 1868, with all the said Sainsevain. Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Sainsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sainsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED. Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO" are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who will bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are therefore shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
